We Enter Into God's Presence

✠ The Call to Worship

Psalm 1:1, 2

Leader: Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

People: but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

How Blest the Man

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. 1 Peter 5:6-7

The Call to Confession

2 Peter 3:8-9

But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

The Silent, Personal Prayer of Confession

The Corporate Confession of Sin

Our Father in heaven, truly you are gracious, and you are steadfast in your love for us. We have repaid your love with ingratitude, sin, and rebellion. We daily break your commandments, in thought, word, and deed. Though we have every reason to be broken and contrite, instead we have been proud. Though you bless us constantly with good gifts, we have been discontent. Our hearts are cold toward you, and we deal with others in selfishness. We confess these, our sins, and pray that you will look upon us with pity. May your grace and mercy abound to us, and may your Holy Spirit instruct us in holy living. We pray this for the honor and glory of Jesus Christ, and in His name alone. Amen.

✠ The Assurance of Pardon

Hebrews 9:24-28

For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own, for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

The Offering

The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

We Receive God's Word

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
